PRESS RELEASE: AML Foods Limited's "Level Up Certification Series" graduates 82 employees

Eighty-two individuals have graduated from AML's Certification Program, following ten weeks of training, assessments, and in-field assignments, culminating in a two-hour examination.

The program, known as the "Level Up Certification Series," included modules covering Personal Branding, Generations in the Workplace, Leadership, Delegation, Critical Thinking, and Human Resources Basics.

The graduation ceremony was held on April 30th, 2023, at the Frank Crothers Learning & Development Center, where Kimberley Bodie, the Head of Human Resources, Talent & Development, congratulated the graduates and expressed the company's commitment to creating a culture of learning.

Gavin Watchorn, President and CEO of AML Foods Limited, gave the keynote address, thanking the Human Resources Talent & Development team for their hard work in developing the program for AML team members.

He challenged the graduates to continue leveling up and to aspire to possible leadership roles within the company. This first cohort of graduates is part of AML's new strategic direction for career pathing among its managers and line associates.

Three graduates were honored as top performers. Logistics Broker; Keisha Douglas, Senior Buyer; Gerald Chea, & Front-End Supervisor; Sheniqua Forbes.
